

GENERAL CONVENTION

1922

THE KING

International Bible Students Association

Cedar Point, Ohio

NOTES

*With the exception of the days named in program there will be no evening meetings. After that all evenings will be given over to rest and personal fellowship. This will afford opportunity for personal discussion of the points made in the discourses during the day and for encouraging each other.

OTHER MEETINGS: The program shows meetings only for the main part. Other meetings will be arranged by the Chairman to be held at other times as occasion requires. All meetings aside from those mentioned in the program including meetings for the foregoing speaking brethren will be arranged for by the Chairman and announced from the platform. All speakers not mentioned on the program will be assigned by the Chairman. All speakers' names do not appear on the program. The Chairman will assign such as are not mentioned in other meetings and service.

MUSIC: All persons attending the convention will be provided for the music, piano, organ and other musical or orchestral instruments and other musical services. All persons come to the Convention as well as possible.

DOCTORS: It is hoped that no one will be obliged to provide against such emergency. A hospital will be opened in the hotel night with the services of several hours by physicians, nurses, dentists and other representatives. This service will be free of those attending the convention. All doctors coming to participate in this service please report to the Chairman.

INFORMATION BUREAU: A Bureau of Information is established on the grounds for the purpose of giving general information concerning the convention.

ENTRANCE TO THE CONVENTION: On Monday at 10 o'clock, the first day, and all of the other days, the entrance to the grounds will be open to all persons who are registered at the convention. It is recommended that all persons who are registered at the convention should bring their names to the Information Bureau. For the convenience of those who attend the convention a Book List is provided by the Bureau. At each all of its publications can be had. It will be closed from 10 to 12 and from 2 to 5 o'clock each day.

NOTES

INFORMATION FOR DELEGATES

The locations for various convention departments and functions will be announced as required. The information may also be obtained through the Attendant and Information departments.

ADMINISTRATION

This office is responsible for the oversight of the entire convention arrangement.

ATTENDANTS

The attendants are assigned to assist you. Please cooperate fully with them by following their direction with regard to parking, crowd control, seat saving, and other matters.

BAPTISM

Candidates for baptism should be assembled in the reserved section before the discourse on baptism begins on Saturday morning. Each one should bring a towel and a modest bathing suit. Reserved seats for baptism candidates will be on the main floor in front of the stage. Any exceptions to this will be announced in advance and will be known by the attendants as well as the Information Department.

CHAIRMAN

The chairman cares for matters pertaining to the convention program and program participants.

FIRST AID

Please bear in mind that this is for EMERGENCIES ONLY.

SEATING

Please be considerate of others. Remember, seats may be saved only for those traveling with you in the same vehicle, living with you in the same home, or currently studying the Bible with you. Please do not leave articles on seats around you. Your cooperating in this regard will allow others to see that those seats are available.

VOLUNTEER SERVICE

If you wish to volunteer to assist with the work involved in the convention arrangement, please report to this department and you will be directed to where help is needed.
