

Yankee Stadium during public lecture, Sunday, August 3

Record crowds in Yankee Stadium hear "God's Kingdom Rules—Is the World's End Near?"

Above: Two views of crowds at the Polo Grounds. Below: Some of the overflow tent facilities at the Polo Grounds.

Overflow crowds in tents near Yankee Stadium (above) and the Polo Grounds (below)

N. H. Knorr displays new book "Your Will Be Done on Earth"

F. W. Franz speaks to assembly

M. G. Henschel talking with the day's chairman

Above: Aerial view showing some of the 7,136 who were baptized. Below: Candidates wait turn at baptism site.

2,937 men were baptized to symbolize their dedication to Jehovah

4,199 women were immersed

Determined to do the divine will

Divine Will International Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses, 1

Yankee Stadium

New York City, July 27-August 3, 1958. Attendance, 253,922

Polo Grounds

Gilead graduates of 31st class

Registrar A. D. Schroeder

Gilead graduates from the Orient entertain assembly

Delegates from Around the Globe

Korea

Surinam

Nigeria

Hong Kong

Indonesia

Japan

Ceylon

Ghana

Netherlands

N. H. Knorr surprises audience with new book "From Paradise Lost to Paradise Regained"

New book holds interest of children as well as adults

These children were fascinated by the colorful display at the assembly

"Let God Be True" in forty-eight languages was on display at the assembly

Some of the Society's eighty-four branch offices

Delegates examine pictures of Kingdom Halls

The Brooklyn Bethel home

Above: Architect's drawing of Brooklyn Bethel and proposed addition. Below: The Society's factory, with new thirteen-story building on right.

Convention Side Lights

Rain did not make them stay home

Entranced by "Paradise" book

Comfort under banner headlines

Children who study the Bible

N. H. Knorr releases Spanish reading aid

M. G. Henschel releases book in Amharic